

A Word from the Pastor

Happy Mother's Day. Today we will take a small break from the Book of Mark to share about the faith of Timothy's grandmother and mother. The Apostle Paul uses the word dwell it means to take residence in, to make at home. Do you understand Jesus is supposed to take residence in our hearts as his followers? We know that it was evident it had taken residence in each of their hearts because the Apostle Paul speaks about the living example Timothy's mother and grandmother was in his life. By that example Timothy lives for Christ and even becomes a pastor of church planted by Apostle Paul. The earlier the foundation is set in Christ for a child the better. Their faith will be tested. The worse thing to do to a child is to have a fake faith. You can't pretend to have faith in Jesus. It will be made evident to your child you do not. A mother cannot impart a faith if she does not possess it.

God Bless
