

Cottage School

Our cottage school is a classical Christian support for future disciples and their families. Homeschooled children and their families can find the structure and backing in their homeschool life they deeply desire. We currently use memorial press curriculum to ensure a well-rounded and solid support system for our children. However, we know it is not the only beautiful curriculum out there. We can help cover the basics as your child either transitions to memorial press or reinforce your current curriculum as homeschooling has its own unique challenges. So, we will be attending homeschool events that are happening locally or we may even just go on field trips as we are the educators for our children and hands on fun is always the best! We meet two days a week on Mondays and Thursdays from 10-3. Drop in and have a look! We do crafts and science enrichment on Thursdays in the afternoon. There is no cost to this. Come join us!

Follow Along in Today's Reading

Today, we enter Peter's next instruction for followers of Christ, Submission to government, employer and in marriage. This portion covers from 1 Peter 2:13 through 1 Peter 3:9.

Barna Survey shows Americans Are Divided on Whether Jesus Was Sinless. Perhaps reflective of their questions about Jesus' divinity, Americans are conflicted on whether Jesus committed sins during his earthly life. About half of Americans agree, either strongly or somewhat, that while he lived on earth, Jesus Christ was human and committed sins like other people (52%).

1 Peter 2:22-23 ESV

He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. [23] When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly.
