

A Word from the Pastor

Today, Jesus will give a prophecy from Zechariah 13:7 "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who stands next to me," declares the LORD of hosts. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; I will turn my hand against the little ones. The tough thing about this verse is the disciples will fulfill this scripture they will all scatter.

This scripture is so beneficial for the follower of Christ because it is a reminder that we will all fail. Yet, Jesus knows it will happen. He is interceding and praying for us to stand firm in the faith. Do you learn from your failures? We should, but we can't live this life without the direction and leading of the Shepherd Jesus. After the resurrection Jesus gathers his sheep and gives them direction. I love that because Jesus knew they would fulfill the scripture, and when fail it's not a surprise to God at all. Get up repent, rise and understand your redeemed by the blood of Christ. Get back to living for Jesus.

God Bless
