

A Word from the Pastor

Today, we enter into the civil trial with Jesus. We are also introduced to Pilate. Pilate played in Jerusalem at this time. He was the governor of Palestine from 26-36 AD. Pilate has control over taxation & Roman army. But the biggest issue he has is to keep the peace between Rome & the Jews.

The other person we are introduced to Barabbas who was convicted of murder and being an insurrectionist. Barabbas gets released and Jesus is crucified. Barabbas's condemnation is a remarkable parallel to the story of every believer. We stood guilty before God and deserving of death. Yet through all of this God is in control.

God Bless
