

Cottage School

Our cottage school is a classical Christian support for future disciples and their families.

Homeschooled children and their families can find the structure and backing in their homeschool life they deeply desire. We currently use memorial press curriculum to ensure a well-rounded and solid support system for our children.

However, we know it is not the only beautiful curriculum out there. We can help cover the basics as your child either transitions to memorial press or reinforce your current curriculum as homeschooling has its own unique challenges. So, we will be attending homeschool events that are happening locally or we may even just go on field trips as we are the educators for our children and hands on fun is always the best! We meet two days a week on Mondays and Thursdays from 10-3. Drop in and have a look! We do crafts and science enrichment on Thursdays in the afternoon. There is no cost to this. Come join us!

Follow Along in Today's Reading

Today, we continue our Advent Series "And the Word became Flesh.", today we will begin to look at a beautiful song by Zechariah who was the father of John the Baptist.

At John's birth, Zacharias, who has been dumb for about nine months, is not only able to speak, but he will sing a solo. Elisabeth sang the first song, Mary sang the second one, and now it is quite proper that Zacharias sing a song. His song is one of prophecy. Although Zacharias is not in the line of David, he does recognize that his son is going to be the forerunner of Jesus Christ, as foretold by Malachi and Isaiah.

John is to be the one to announce the coming of the Messiah. The presence of the forerunner indicates that the Messiah is not far behind. He is coming soon.
