

A Word from the Pastor

Today, the Major League of Religious Leaders come to challenge Jesus and question his authority. Yet Jesus never answers and question from them. He actually gives them a question, yet they knew the answer but wouldn't answer it. Jesus doesn't have to answer questions from them because Jesus is the Chief Priest, King of Kings, Son of God, and the Messiah. These men received their authority through politics, power, and prestige. They struggled with authority as well. Jesus had the very large crowds and people following, they were envious. Yet they were rebelling against the Lord.

Do you have a problem with authority, let me ask it in another way, do you like it when other people interfere in your life? Mark shows us that Jesus interferes in our life. Each of us have to decide if he is the Lord of Life. That means all areas of life.

God Bless
